Re: Monica Day Crowned 2013 Ms. Maryland Plus America!

Monica D. Day has been crowned Ms. Maryland Plus America 2013. She will compete with women from all over the United States for the title of Miss Plus America Elite in July of 2013. "I am proud to represent Maryland in this important pageant to help women stay healthy and positive about their body image," Monica Day said. The Miss Plus America Pageant system is unlike any other pageant concept. It celebrates the inner beauty of each contestant, as well as recognizing their commitment to their communities. Melissa Stamper, Executive Director for Coronet Productions says, "Monica D. Day is an ideal candidate for the Miss Plus America Pageant. We are proud to have her as a state titleholder."

As Ms. Maryland Plus America 2013, Monica D. Day will have the opportunity to further promote her platform: Women's Empowerment "My platform can be defined by B.E. B.O.L.D., which stands for brave, empowered, body positive, optimistic, leading divas. I feel strongly that women should encourage each other to be all these things," she said.

Day is working on a B.A. in political science from American Public University. She is a political affairs coordinator for the American Hospital Association's Political Action Committee. "Our society needs to embrace all forms of beauty and I hope to help elevate this important pageant to the level other prominent national pageants for women."

"I am a proud Maryland native who is passionate about the Baltimore Ravens and politics. Growing up outside Washington, D.C. has given me the opportunity to work on political campaigns without being far from home." Day is also actively involved with Sisters In Spirit, a not-for-profit organization that empowers women of all ages across the globe to live a more balanced, harmonious lifestyle by providing a nurturing environment that shares resources, information, and inspiration to aid in making better choices.
